
US Updates Alert System to Prevent Terrorist Attacks - Obama

WASHINGTON, December 17 (Sputnik) - The United States has modernized its alert system to ensure that the public promptly receives the necessary information concerning terrorist threats, US President Barack Obama said in a speech on Thursday. "Just yesterday, the Department of Homeland Security updated its alert system to make sure Americans are getting the most timely and useful information," Obama stated at the National Counterterrorism Center in McLean, Virginia.